

Polish Congress Ambassadors 2019

2019-07-23

During the session of the Polish Congress Ambassadors Programme Chapter on 4 June, 18 prominent new figures representing the scientific and business community, including 4 from Krakow, joined the group of Honorary Ambassadors of Polish Congresses!

Until now, the title of Ambassador of Congresses was received by nearly 250 people, including over 50 from Kraków and Małopolska. The following persons were honoured with the Honorary Ambassador of Polish Congresses title from Krakow: Professor Jerzy Falandysz, PhD, Professor Dariusz Grzebelus, PhD, Professor Wojciech Kwiatek, PhD, and Konstanty Szuldrzyński, MD, PhD. A meeting with the laureates and the award ceremony will take place during the Gala of Polish Congress Ambassadors on 21 October this year at the International Congress Centre in Katowice.

The Polish Congress Ambassadors Programme is implemented jointly by the Polish Tourist Organization and the Conferences and Congresses in Poland Association, a non-governmental organisation, - and it aims at recognising and distinguishing those who actively and with great commitment gain new congresses for Poland. Representing our country in various international structures, Congress Ambassadors use their extensive and meaningful contacts to promote our country, its culture and scientific achievements.
