

Magiczny
Kraków

Tadeusz Pankiewicz's Pharmacy in Krakow Ghetto

2013-03-10

Inauguration of the Permanent Exhibition 'Tadeusz Pankiewicz's Pharmacy in Kraków Ghetto' at The Eagle Pharmacy (branch of the Historical Museum of the City of Krakow) is the focal point in the celebrations of the 70th anniversary of the German liquidation of Krakow Ghetto which have been taken under the Honorary Patronage of the President of the Republic of Poland, Mr. Bronisław Komorowski.

PROGRAMME

16 MARCH (SATURDAY)

7 p.m.-midnight

The inauguration of the permanent exhibition on Tadeusz Pankiewicz's Pharmacy in Krakow Ghetto takes place in the Ghetto Heroes Square. The ceremony consists in speeches by the specially invited guests and a concert accompanied with a visualization thrown on the façade of the tenement house at 18 Ghetto Heroes Square, which houses The Eagle Pharmacy.

After the official part of the ceremony, there will be a sound and light show, inspired by the artistic output of Witold Chomicz.

All the guests and participants shall receive a token of remembrance – a photograph inspired by the history of Krakow Ghetto.

The photograph is also a one-person free ticket to the three branches of the Historical Museum of the City of Krakow which form the so-called Memory Trail (namely, to The Eagle Pharmacy, Pomorska Street, and Oskar Schindler's Enamel Factory). The ticket shall be valid until 14 April 2013.

7.00-7.20 p.m.

Official part – Greeting and welcoming the special guests; the guests' speeches

7.20-7.40 p.m.

Concert

Musicians: Urszula Makosz – vocal, Paweł Pierzchała – piano, Michał Półtorak – violin
Visualization by Messmedia

7.45 p.m.

Prayer of representatives of the Jewish community of Krakow

Magiczny
Kraków

8 p.m.-midnight

Seeing the MHK exhibitions and sound and light show:

- The Eagle Pharmacy (groups of twenty visitors enter every fifteen minutes; about eighty visitors per hour)
- Oskar Schindler's Enamel Factory – open till midnight; last entry: 10.30p.m.

The Kraków Ghetto Pharmacy – a sound and light show on the façade of the tenement house at 18 Ghetto Heroes Square. The show is an imaginative response of computer graphic and animation artists to the artistic vision of the extermination of the Jewish community of Kraków presented in the stained-glass windows designed by Witold Chomicz (the panels had ornamented the windows of The Eagle Pharmacy until 2003). The show shall be accompanied with a soundtrack of excerpts from Tadeusz Pankiewicz's memoirs – The Krakow Ghetto Pharmacy – read by Krakow actors and corresponding in its message and content to the images thrown on the façade of the building.

17 MARCH (SUNDAY)

The most important single event of the day is the March of Remembrance, coordinated by the Jewish Culture Festival in Krakow Foundation

Time: noon-2 p.m.

Besides, MHK organises two sightseeing walks through the area of the former Krakow Ghetto

10 a.m.-noon

Sightseeing walk through the area of the former Krakow Ghetto

Title: 'We once lived here, too'

3-5 p.m.

Sightseeing walk through the area of the former Krakow Ghetto

Title: 'Through the Pharmacy Windows. The Kraków Ghetto as Remembered by Tadeusz Pankiewicz'

The new exhibition at The Eagle Pharmacy shall be open for visitors free of charge.

MHK branches opening hours:

The Eagle Pharmacy, pl. Bohaterów Getta 18, Krakow

Magiczny
Kraków

Saturday, 16 March – from 8 p.m. till midnight – admittance free

Sunday, 17 March – from 9 a.m. to 8p.m. – admittance free

Oskar Schindler's Enamel Factory, ul. Lipowa 4, Krakow

Saturday, 16 March – from 10 a.m. till midnight – admittance free

Sunday, 17 March – from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. – entrance fee