

Krakow in Numbers

2020-06-03

Total city area - 327 km²

The city stretches from the North to the South ca. 18 km, whereas from the West to the East - ca. 31 km

Point of the highest elevation within the city limits - 383 m above sea level (The J. Piłsudski Mound).

Point of the lowest elevation within the city limits - 188 m above sea level (mouth of the Potok Kościelnicki creek).

The city of Kraków also happens to be crossed by the 50°N parallel and the 20°E meridian.

The co-ordinates of the Adam Mickiewicz monument at Rynek Główny (Main Square) - 50°03'41"N and 19°56'17".

In 2019:

population: 779,115 (of which 415,628 females)

number of: births - 9,454; deaths - 7,929

natural increase - 1,525 (2.0‰)

registered unemployed rate (as of December, 31st) - 2.0%

In 2018:

population - 771,069 (of which 411,204 females)

number of: births - 9,410; deaths - 7,835

natural increase - 1,575 (2.04‰)

migration balance - 4,131

registered unemployed rate (as of December, 31st) - 2.4%

For more statistical information on the city of Krakow please look up the following publications

Magiczny Kraków

and websites:

Krakow in numbers \(yearbooks\)

Statistical Bulletins of the City of Krakow \(quarterly\)