Money

Banks and ATMs

Around the Market Square there are located, banks and ATMs that accept most credit cards. Also in most of the shops in the center you can make transactions using the card.

Exchange offices

Exchange of money can be made in exchange offices and banks. Banks usually charge a commission on the service so the exchange is less favorable.

Exchanging money at exchange offices should pay attention to the proposed exchange rates, or compare it with other cantors. It is recommended that prior to the transaction at the counter currency, calculate how much money we should get. The exchange rate, appearing at the entrance to the office.

For comparison, exchange rates, you can also use the information on the website of the Polish National Bank: www.nbp.pl, which publishes the current table of average exchange rates of foreign currencies.
