Kraków is one of the best foodie destinations in Europe!

2023-08-16

The capital of Małopolska with its 6th place ranks quite high in the prestigious and competitive culinary race. Barcelona is the most attractive foodie destination in Europe, endorsed by most global travelers on Booking.com.

Kraków has been also named among the most popular European destinations for travelers primarily interested in cultural experiences. Our City is found among the Top 10 History and Culture Destinations on our Continent. According to Booking.com users the first place belongs to Paris.
